

Cathedral at Noon

A series of free 30 minute concerts,
every Saturday at 12 noon

Cathedral Church of St Andrew
28 King Street, Aberdeen

30 March 2024

Ronald Leith

Organ

~

BY BACH?

Recitals are followed by a buffet lunch.
Donations to Cathedral funds are gratefully received.

PROGRAMME

Prelude in C Major

Bicinium on "Allein Gott in der Hoh' sei Ehr"

Fughetta on "Dies sind die heiligen
zehn Gebot'

Prelude on "O Lamm Gottes, unschuldig"

Andante in E minor

Canon per augmentationem

Prelude on "Dies sind die heiligen zehn
Gebot"

Fugue in C Major

RONALD LEITH

Ronald Leith is an Aberdonian who since 1973 has been organist, at St. Mary's (Roman Catholic) Cathedral, Aberdeen. He is also city carillonneur. He studied organ and harpsichord at the Royal College of Music in London, and in 1972 won first prize in the National Organ Playing competition at Southport. Since then, he has undertaken many recitals and tours both in the U.K. and on the continent, as well as broadcasting regularly on Radio 3.

In 1978, the Sanctus, Acclamation and Great Amen of his Elphinstone Mass was selected to be sung at the Papal Visit to Scotland in 1978 at Bellahouston Park.

Ronald was awarded the Pro Ecclesia et Pontificate Papal medal on the Feast of Saint Stephen 2013, by Bishop Hugh Gilbert, for over forty years outstanding and distinguished service to the Church.

FUTURE RECITAL DATES

- 6 Apr North East Scotland Music School Flute Choir
- 13 Apr Lucy Webster
Mignone Waltzes and variations on Paganini's 24th Caprice, and possibly a Milde concert etude.
- 20 Apr Gordon Cooper
Appalachian Spring
- 27 Apr Roger and Katherine Williams
- 4 May Liz Knowles & Harry Williamson
Composer Couples - Robert and Clara Schumann, and Gustav and Alma Mahler
- 11 May Oliva Mackenzie
- 18 May Pupils of Aberdeen City Music School
- 25 May Con Anima Chamber Choir
150th Birthday celebrations: Schönberg, Hahn and Holst

Find out about upcoming music concerts in Aberdeen:

MUSIC
ABERDEEN

www.musicaberdeen.com

If you are interested in performing for a future recital:
please email: cathedralatnoon@gmail.com
